Janmashtami Celebration

With an air of devotion and festivity, British Olivia School celebrated Janmashtami with splendour and reverence. The day's events unfolded like a vibrant tapestry of music, dance, and heartfelt homage to Lord Krishna.

A Gracious Welcome

The celebration commenced with a warm welcome to our respected Chairman Sir, esteemed Director Ma'am, honourable Principal Ma'am, and dedicated Coordinator Ma'am. Their gracious presence elevated the occasion, filling the hall with joy and pride.

Sacred Ghee Diya Offering

The traditional lighting of the ghee diya before the idol of Krishna was performed with devotion, symbolising purity and the eternal flame of faith that brightens our hearts.

First Grade Dance Performance

Our little stars of Grade 1 took the stage with innocence and charm, performing a delightful dance that captured the playful spirit of young Krishna.

Dance and Matki Phodna

The energetic students of Grades 4 and 5 mesmerized the audience with their captivating dance, culminating in the vibrant Matki Phod, echoing the joyous traditions of Gokul.

Bhajan – A Song for Krishna

An enchanting bhajan dedicated to Lord Krishna resonated through the hall, its melodious verses creating an atmosphere of divine serenity and spiritual bliss.

Ramp Walk of Radha-Krishna Attire

Words of Inspiration from Director Ma'am

Our esteemed Director Ma'am shared warm and motivating words, expressing heartfelt appreciation for the anchors and the talented boys who played the xylophone, adding a soulful rhythm to the event.

Final Dance Extravaganza

The programme reached its crescendo with a final, exuberant dance that united the entire audience in claps, smiles, and shared celebration.

As the curtains drew on this joyous occasion, hearts remained full—with devotion for Krishna, gratitude for the collective effort, and the warmth of a community celebrating together in harmony.

Grade 6 – Flute Decoration

Our young artisans of Grade 6 transformed simple flutes into radiant masterpieces, adorning them with laces, beads, and stones. Each creation resonated with the charm of Krishna's melody, reflecting both devotion and artistic finesse.

Grade 7 – Wall Hangings

Grade 7 students showcased their imagination by crafting exquisite wall hangings, blending threads, ribbons, and beads into intricate designs that carried the essence of festive spirituality.

Grade 8 – Krishna Crowns

Glitter sheets, shimmering stones, and heartfelt enthusiasm came together in Grade 8 as students designed resplendent Krishna crowns, each a symbol of divine grace and joyous celebration.

Grade 9 – Peacock Feather Wall Hangings

The elegance of peacock feathers found new expression in Grade 9's creations. Using cardboard, vibrant colours, and decorative elements, students captured the beauty and symbolism of Krishna's eternal companion.

Grade 10 – Krishna Jhula Making

Grade 10 learners poured dedication into crafting ornate Krishna jhulas. With every brush of fevicol and placement of decorative material, they recreated scenes of divine playfulness and tender devotion.

Grades 11 & 12 – Matka Painting and Decoration

The senior students embraced tradition by designing and painting matkas, merging cultural artistry with personal expression. Their intricate patterns and vibrant palettes reflected the joyous spirit of Janmashtami in every stroke.

Creative Displays for Rakhi and Janmashtami

The spirit of tradition and creativity came alive as our students prepared beautiful displays for Rakhi and Janmashtami. The vibrant showcase included hand-made rakhis, decorated thalis, greeting cards, and Krishna-themed artwork. Students used eco-friendly materials, colors, and innovative ideas to present their talent and love for culture.

These displays not only highlighted the artistic skills of the learners but also deepened their understanding of Indian festivals and values. Teachers and visitors appreciated the effort, enthusiasm, and creativity of the children, making the celebration truly memorable.

CANVAS OF PATRIOTISM

Independence Day Creative Fiesta
Celebrating the Spirit of Freedom through Art & Craft

As part of our Independence Day celebrations, the corridors of British Olivia School bloomed in the vibrant hues of saffron, white, and green. Students from Grades 1 to 5 portrayed their creativity into art and craft activities that honour our nation's heritage. Each task had been thoughtfully designed to instil patriotism, teamwork, and the joy of self-expression.

Grade 2 – "Bangles of Pride"

Our second graders transformed simple bangles into dazzling tricolour adornments. Each decorated bangle became a wearable emblem of patriotism, a reminder that national pride can be both beautiful and personal.

Grade 3 – “Badges & Blooms of the Nation”

Students crafted tricolour badges and delicate crepe paper flowers, blending artistry with symbolism. The badges shined proudly on uniforms, while the flowers illuminated the celebration space with their spirited charm.

Grade 4 & 5 – “Wall Hangings of Harmony”

In a blend of skill and imagination, Grades 4 and 5 designed tricolour wall hangings. Each piece stood as a decorative tribute to the nation, a testament to the unity that binds us together.

With every brushstroke, fold, and flourish, our students not only created art but also weaved memories that keep the flame of independence alive for generations to come.

INDEPENDENCE DAY ASSEMBLY HIGHLIGHTS

Independence Day Celebration & Welcome of Dignitaries

British Olivia School celebrated Independence Day with great enthusiasm. The students gave a warm welcome to our Chairman Sir, Director Ma'am, and Principal Ma'am, who graced the occasion with their presence.

The celebration ended with the distribution of sweets, filling the day with pride, joy, and patriotic spirit.

A Gracious Opening – Voices of the Young Patriots

The ceremony commenced with a poised introduction by Keshav of Grade 10 and Mayra of Grade 9, whose eloquent words set a tone of reverence and pride. Their balanced blend of formality and warmth resonated deeply with the audience, igniting the spirit of unity. As the tricolour's symbolism lingered in hearts, the duo guided all into a journey of remembrance and celebration.

Melodies of Freedom – The Song Mashup

A harmonious medley of patriotic tunes filled the air, weaving together nostalgia and inspiration. The voices blended seamlessly, stirring emotions and evoking a sense of gratitude for the nation's hard-earned liberty. Each note carried the weight of sacrifice and the joy of sovereignty, leaving the audience spellbound.

Words that Inspire – Speech by Moksha (Grade 10)

Moksha delivered a compelling address that echoed the essence of independence. Her articulate expressions reflected not only historical reverence but also the responsibility of today's youth in shaping tomorrow's India. The clarity of her vision and sincerity of her delivery touched every listener, instilling a renewed sense of purpose.

India's Shining Triumphs – Address by Dinesh Jassal (Grade 10)

Highlighting the nation's most recent achievements, Dinesh spoke with pride and conviction. From advancements in space technology to milestones in sports and innovation, his words showcased India's unstoppable momentum. The audience absorbed each fact with admiration, realising that the nation's journey is as vibrant as its flag.

A Theatrical Salute – NCC Cadets' Performance

The NCC cadets brought history to life through a stirring act that honoured the bravery of India's defenders. Their discipline, synchronisation, and emotional depth paid tribute to countless unsung heroes. The performance was not merely an act—it was a living portrait of courage, patriotism, and sacrifice.

Vote of Thanks

Mrs. Avneet Bhatt warmly thanked Chairman Sir, Director Ma'am, Principal Ma'am, teachers, and students for their presence and efforts, making the Independence Day celebration a memorable success.

A Heartfelt Close – End of the Assembly

As the programme drew to a close, the ambience remained charged with pride and gratitude. The audience departed with hearts alight, carrying the message that independence is not merely a date in history, but a daily act of dedication and love for the motherland.
